1. Introduction

1.1. Qualifications

- (1) I am an economist and Managing Director with Intensity. Intensity is an independent economics and data science firm serving clients that are facing complex issues arising in legal disputes, regulatory proceedings, and valuation analysis throughout the U.S. and abroad. I earned my Ph.D. in economics from Texas A&M University, where I taught in the Department of Economics and the Department of Management. My fields of study were industrial organization, public economics, and econometrics.
- (2) I am a member of the American Economic Association, the Licensing Executives Society, of which I am vice-chair of the DC Chapter, and the American Society of International Law. I am also an associate member of the American Bar Association of which I belong to the Section of Intellectual Property Law as well as the Section of Litigation, where I co-chair the Intellectual Property Litigation subcommittee of the Commercial and Business Litigation Committee.
- (3) My professional experience includes valuations and economic damages analysis in matters including intellectual property infringement and misappropriation, breach of contract, commercial damages, antitrust disputes, and asset expropriation. I have testified in trials in state and federal courts and in domestic and international arbitrations. I have consulted to organizations, small companies, corporations and individuals in litigation and non-litigation proceedings.
- (4) My business address is 11452 El Camino Real, Suite 250, San Diego, CA. Exhibit A is a copy of my curriculum vitae that describes my background and experience in greater detail and contains my testimony and reports for at least the past five years and publications and presentations for at least the past 10 years.

1.2. Scope of Work

- (5) This matter, Moonbug Entertainment Limited, and Treasure Studio, Inc., v. BabyBus Co., Ltd and BabyBus (Fujian) Network Technology Co., Ltd, relates to claims by Moonbug Entertainment Limited and Treasure Studio, Inc. (collectively, “Plaintiffs”) against BabyBus Co., Ltd. and BabyBus (Fujian) Network Technology Co., Ltd (collectively, “Defendants”).

Plaintiffs’ Amended Complaint alleges infringement by Defendants of 41 of Plaintiffs’ registered copyrights.¹

- (6) I have been retained by Tyz Law Group PC to provide an independent opinion regarding the amount of damages owed to Plaintiffs if liability is found.² The calculations of economic damages herein are performed assuming liability with respect to the claims brought by Plaintiffs. I do not offer any opinions on liability.
- (7) This report has been prepared in connection with the above-referenced lawsuit and contains my opinions based on the results of my analyses performed to date. They are to be used for the specific purposes of this lawsuit and are not to be used for any other purpose without the express written consent of Intensity, LLC (“Intensity”). To the extent that additional information becomes available to me, I reserve the right to update or amend my opinions.

1.3. Information reviewed and relied upon

- (8) During the course of my work, I have examined documents provided to me by counsel, participated in discussions with Mr. Jonathan Benoy, Mr. Chris Stevens, Mr. Marc Ware, and Mr. Ryan Gorman, and reviewed information I obtained from public sources.³ This report and the opinions and conclusions reached herein are based on my review of this information as well as my knowledge, education, experience, and training.
- (9) A listing of documents and information that I considered in preparing the following report is found in the footnotes contained herein and in Exhibit B to this report. In connection with my anticipated testimony in this action, I may use as exhibits various documents produced in this litigation which refer to or relate to the matters discussed in this report. In addition, I may create or assist in the creation of certain demonstrative exhibits to assist me in testifying.

Amended Complaint for Copyright Infringement, 5/6/2022, ¶ 21.

² [REDACTED] The amount of fees is not contingent upon the opinions expressed herein or the outcome of this matter.

³ Discussion with Jonathan Benoy and Chris Stevens, 9/30/2022.

Discussion with Ryan Gorman and Marc Ware, 10/19/2022.

2. Summary of Opinions

- (10) It is my opinion that the alleged infringing actions of the [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
- (11) Total unjust enrichment damages, based on the infringers’ gross revenue attributable to the alleged infringement, amount to $17,350,454. It is my understanding that in establishing the infringer’s profits, the copyright owner is required to present proof only of the infringer’s gross revenue, and that the burden then shifts to the infringer to prove deductible expenses and the elements of profit attributable to factors other than the copyrighted work.
- (12) I understand that in calculating total damages, the amount of unjust enrichment damages should not include damages associated with infringing activity that was taken into account in computing actual damages (in this case, lost profits). Should the trier of fact find that lost profits are appropriate, I calculate a deduction from unjust enrichment damages that would be made to avoid double counting. Unjust enrichment damages, deducting for revenues associated with allegedly infringing activity that was taken into account in computing lost profits, is [REDACTED] Total damages, then, [REDACTED]

(16) As of August 2022, Moonbug’s website lists 18 shows, including CoComelon.¹⁴ The CoComelon show publishes digital content on platforms such as YouTube, and features a character named JJ and his family. Elaborating on CoComelon and the show’s characters, Moonbug stated in a 2020 press release:¹⁵

CoComelon is a kids 3D animation show that has become the world’s most watched YouTube channel, with over 3.5 billion monthly views, not including its category-leading viewership on Netflix. Known for their infectious positivity, Baby JJ and his siblings go about everyday activities and chores with enthusiasm and a sense of fun to help inspire kids at home to do the same. Characters sing catchy songs that model how to constructively interact with the world around them, from cleaning up their toys, to getting ready for bed and eating their vegetables every night.

‘At CoComelon we’ve tried to create characters that are adorable, likeable and universally relatable. We think of JJ, YoYo, and TomTom as our imaginary kids, and over time, we built a family around them – parents, grandparents, animal friends, school classmates,’ says Jay Jeon, creator of CoComelon. ‘And we think a lot about our audience and what they’re going through: growing up, daily challenges, learning new things. Life! We hope they share experiences similar to those of our characters.’

- (17) Moonbug owns copyrights in the central CoComelon character, JJ, his extended family consisting of his “mother, father, older sister and brother, and a dog named Bingo” and “copyrights in hundreds of original CoComelon videos, its ‘Yes, Yes’ and ‘No, No’ song series, unique thumbnail art, and other images.”¹⁶

4. Alleged Conduct

4.1. Overview

- (21) Plaintiffs state that they,
- own copyrights in the original, creative and expressive central CoComelon character, baby JJ, including visual art depicting baby JJ. Baby JJ is depicted with a charming large rounded square head, a blond tuft of hair above his forehead, thin rounded eyebrows, extra-large eyes with large irises and pupils, a button nose with no bridge, two front teeth, thin lips on a mouth mainly fashioned into a half moon smile, and a comparatively small body below, often clothed in a yellow and turquoise pajama onesie at home or other bright, decorated clothing for school or play. As developed in copyrighted videos, baby JJ also possesses original and expressive conceptual qualities: he is a happy, positive, eager, and curious boy, excited to learn things and help others as he grows in the CoComelon universe.²⁵
- (22) Plaintiffs also state that they “own copyrights in baby JJ’s nuclear family characters. Specifically, baby JJ has a mother, father, older sister and brother, and a dog named Bingo. The CoComelon family share similar faces and body shape, eyes, lips, bridgeless noses and other facial features, and the same chunky hair and hairstyles.”²⁶ Additionally, Plaintiffs “own copyrights in hundreds of original CoComelon videos, its ‘Yes, Yes’ and ‘No, No’ song series, unique thumbnail art, and other images.”²⁷ I understand that the basis of Plaintiffs’ infringement and damages claims are related to the registered CoComelon Works, which include a subset of CoComelon characters, songs, and videos.²⁸
- (23) I understand that BabyBus owns and operates a YouTube account under the brand “Super JoJo” consisting of “thirteen separate channels in various languages”, and that plaintiffs allege that “[t]he Super JoJo channels owned by Defendant BabyBus, and operated by Defendants BabyBus and BabyBus Fujian, including the replicated video characters, settings, song titles, lyrics, videos and images...willfully infringe Plaintiffs’ rights in the CoComelon Works.”²⁹ The Defendants’ videos on the YouTube platform have received 34.7 billion views to date.³⁰

- (24) Plaintiffs allege that “Super JoJo’s main character, baby JoJo, is an illegal copy of CoComelon’s character baby JJ. JoJo copies distinctive, persistent and recognizable physical features of CoComelon’s baby JJ”³¹ and that “Defendants’ Infringing Super JoJo Works also copy the characters of baby JJ’s family.”³²
- (25) Plaintiffs state that “[w]hile Super JoJo’s infringement of the CoComelon Works, including their characters, images, and style, permeates each of Super JoJo’s thirteen YouTube channels, Super JoJo slavish copying does not end with just the characters – Super JoJo has in many instances copied entire CoComelon Video Works.”³³ These copied Video Works include “The Boo Boo Song” and “Yes Yes Vegetables Song.”³⁴
- (26) In addition, Plaintiffs claim that “[...] the comprehensive nature of [Defendants’] copying is evidence of their willful intent to infringe every element of the CoComelon world” including the “Yes Yes” and “No No” song videos.³⁵

4.2. Copyright Infringement

- (27) Plaintiffs allege that “Defendants copied substantial original elements of the CoComelon Works” and “have infringed Plaintiffs’ copyrights by, without limitation, copying, publicly displaying, and distributing the Infringing Super JoJo Works, without authorization from Plaintiffs.”³⁶
- (28) Plaintiffs also allege that “Defendants have realized unjust profits, gains, and advantages as a proximate result of its infringement. These gains are ongoing as the infringement continues”

5. CoComelon’s Impact on Super JoJo Video Traffic

- (30) I understand there to be a variety of means by which a YouTube viewer may find a video. One method is by searching for a video by its name or by a keyword which may cause YouTube’s search algorithm to provide it as an option.³⁹ Another method is via a content channel; a user may search for a channel and watch videos from its YouTube home page or may follow a channel, in which case videos from that channel will populate the user’s YouTube content feed.⁴⁰ A user may further discover a video after having watched similar videos, either from the same content producer or from similar producers. The user’s YouTube feed will populate with videos similar to those they have watched frequently in the past, so a user could discover a new video on their YouTube content feed.⁴¹
- (31) Alternatively, a user may see a suggested video at the end of a video they have watched and choose to view it.⁴² At the end of a video, YouTube users who have the ‘Autoplay’ feature turned on, may see a new video play without selecting it.⁴³ Finally, YouTube creates video playlists based on a user’s viewing habits which may include videos that they have not seen before. A user who opts to watch a YouTube-generated playlist may discover new videos or videos by creators they have not previously encountered.⁴⁴

- (32) With respect to Super JoJo videos specifically, there are a number of ways by which a viewer would be directed to a Super JoJo video from sources that are associated with CoComelon. A Super JoJo video may be the suggested video after a CoComelon video, may be found via a YouTube search for a CoComelon video or even for the CoComelon channel, may be discovered through the CoComelon channel, or may follow or be part of a playlist of CoComelon and associated videos.⁴⁵
- (33) BabyBus’ data shows that a great deal of SJJNR’s traffic came from these four sources, in addition to some videos being found from a YouTube user’s home page or other user-specific YouTube resources.⁴⁶ I understand that when BabyBus uploads videos to a U.S. based platform such as YouTube, the videos are available globally, receive views worldwide, and generate advertising revenues. For the 15.2 billion worldwide views SJJNR has received on YouTube, 11.1 billion (73.4% of 15.2 billion) came from Suggested videos; 847.3 million (5.6%) came from Playlists; 358.8 million (2.4%) came from YouTube search; and 159.6 million (1.1%) came from Channel pages.⁴⁷ Together, these four sources account for 82.4% of SJJNR’s YouTube views.⁴⁸ These sources are described below.

5.1. Suggested videos

- (34) After watching one video, YouTube viewers are shown other “suggested videos.” These suggested videos “include personalized recommendations, based on the viewer’s previous watches, and videos that are topically related.”⁴⁹ In many instances, the suggested videos are

I understand that following the settlement between YouTube and the Federal Trade Commission in September 2019, YouTube curtailed the data it collected from viewers of videos that it determined to be made for children. YouTube also disabled several features, including comments, channel notifications, and interest-based advertising. I understand that these changes did not impact features like suggested videos. See:

FTC Press Release, “Google and YouTube Will Pay Record $170 Million for Alleged Violations of Children’s Privacy Law,” 9/4/2019, <https://www.ftc.gov/news-events/news/press-releases/2019/09/google-youtube-will-pay-record-170-million-alleged-violations-childrens-privacy-law>.

other videos from the same show, but videos from other shows are recommended as well. For example, a variety of non-CoComelon videos may autoplay after a CoComelon video has concluded, including Super JoJo videos. YouTube data produced by the Defendants shows that viewers are being directed to Super JoJo videos directly from CoComelon videos. Out of the 11.1 billion views that SJJNR received from suggested videos, 1.78 billion views or 16.0% came from non-Super JoJo videos.⁵⁰ Of the views from non-Super JoJo videos, CoComelon videos accounted for 46.0%.⁵¹ See Exhibit D-5. SJJNR videos also benefit from traffic driven from other Moonbug owned characters such as Little Angel.⁵² For example, SJJNR received over 23 million views from a video titled “No More Snacks Baby John! | Yummy Vegetables & Healthy Habits Song | Little Angel Kids Songs”.⁵³ I do not include traffic from Moonbug-owned channels that do not feature CoComelon in the analysis shown in Exhibit D-5, and therefore these amounts are understated as to all Moonbug assets.

5.2. Playlists

- (35) A portion of views on the SJJNR channel are the result of viewers being directed to a Super JoJo video from a playlist of CoComelon videos. YouTube data produced by the Defendants shows that 847.3 million Super JoJo views were driven by viewers being directed to Super

See Exhibit D-8. I do not include traffic from Moonbug-owned channels that do not feature CoComelon in the analysis shown in Exhibit D-8, and therefore these amounts are understated as to all Moonbug assets.

5.3. YouTube search

- (36) Certain viewers watching a video on the SJJNR channel do so after searching for “cocomelon” or a similar term in the YouTube search bar.⁵⁶ YouTube data produced by the Defendants shows that viewers are being directed to Super JoJo videos directly from CoComelon videos. Out of the 358.8 million SJJNR views whose traffic source was YouTube searches, 110.6 million views or 30.8% were viewed following search terms which did not reference Super JoJo, BabyBus, or similar search terms.⁵⁷ Search terms including the term “coco” (capturing searches for CoComelon and variations) accounted for 8.9% of views from non-Super JoJo YouTube searches.⁵⁸ See Exhibit D-6. that do not feature CoComelon in the analysis shown in Exhibit D-6, and therefore these amounts are understated as to all Moonbug assets.

5.4. Channel pages

- (37) Certain Super JoJo views are also driven from channel pages, including the Super JoJo channel page and other BabyBus channels as well as a variety of other children’s show channel pages including CoComelon pages and other Moonbug channels.⁵⁹ Of the 159.6 million BabyBus views sourced from channels, 1.23 million or 0.8% are from non-Super JoJo channels.⁶⁰ Of those, 5.0% are from CoComelon or Moonbug channels.⁶¹ See Exhibit D-7. 6.2. CoComelon’s YouTube Revenues

- (40) CoComelon has created and currently maintains multiple channels on YouTube containing videos focused on their primary CoComelon character, JJ. The most watched channel, CCMNR, debuted in September 2006 and currently has over 140 billion views.⁷⁴ In addition, CoComelon maintains more than 30 additional channels on YouTube. Certain channels, such as “CoComelon en Español - Canciones Infantiles,” cater to non-English speaking viewers across the globe.⁷⁵ Other channels such as “CoComelon - It's Cody Time” focus on ancillary characters in addition to JJ.⁷⁶ CoComelon videos are also featured on YouTube Kids, a platform described as one that “was created to give kids a more contained environment that makes it simpler and more fun for them to explore on their own, and easier for parents and caregivers to guide their journey as they discover new and exciting interests along the way.”⁷⁷

- (41) To receive a share of revenues from advertisement placed on content, a channel must belong to YouTube’s Partner Program.⁷⁸ Once a channel qualifies and is enrolled in the YouTube Partner Program, a creator like CoComelon will begin to receive a portion of the revenue from ads YouTube displays on their videos.⁷⁹ Content creators in the YouTube Partner Program are also paid by YouTube when a subscriber to YouTube Premium (a paid YouTube service through which subscribers may watch videos without ads) views their videos.⁸⁰
- (42) I understand that YouTube content creators generally receive 55% of ad revenue from ads on their channels, with YouTube receiving the other 45%.⁸¹ The same split applies to revenue

7. Lost Profits

7.1. Overview

- (48) I understand that under federal law for copyright infringement, a plaintiff “is entitled to recover the actual damages suffered by him or her as a result of the infringement. In this section, I analyze actual damages in the form of Plaintiffs’ lost profits, and in Section 8 I calculate damages in the form of Defendants’ unjust enrichment.
- (49) As I discuss further below, CoComelon has lost YouTube views, and therefore direct and indirect profits, as a result of the Defendants’ allegedly infringing activity. As described above, CoComelon generates profits from views of CoComelon YouTube videos. Hence, lost profits are the profits that would have been generated by viewers of accused Super JoJo videos who, in the but-for world, would have instead viewed a CoComelon video.
- (50) The loss of YouTube views stemming from BabyBus’ infringement has also negatively affected other CoComelon business segments. CoComelon has lost profits on these other lines of business, including specifically profits from its licensing and merchandising business segment.

7.2. Calculation of Lost Profits

- (51) The analysis presented in Section 5 provides evidence of lost YouTube views to CoComelon due to BabyBus’ alleged conduct. Econometric techniques can be used to measure the magnitude of CoComelon’s lost YouTube views.
- (52) To calculate lost profits, I first estimate the additional YouTube views that CoComelon would have received but-for the alleged conduct. To do this, I employ what economists call a “natural experiment.” A natural experiment allows me to observe how an unexpected change affects my outcome of interest while allowing me to control for other things that may also be affecting my outcome of interest.⁹² Through a natural experiment, I can isolate the quantitative effect of the change on my outcome of interest, which in this case is views on the CoComelon YouTube channel.

⁹² Angrist, Joshua D. and Jörn-Steffen Pischke (2008), Mostly Harmless Econometrics: An Empiricist’s Companion, Princeton NJ: Princeton University Press, p. 16.

- (53) As a relevant natural experiment, I use the removal of accused Super JoJo videos from the SJJNR channel from the YouTube platform on August 26, 2021.⁹³
- (54) I understand that Plaintiffs allege that all Super JoJo videos from the SJJNR channel are infringing.⁹⁴ BabyBus describes the removal as “the termination of BabyBus’ English-language Super JoJo Channel” and notes that it “resulted in a complete loss of search-engine standing on YouTube ... as well as damage to search-engine standing of BabyBus’ other channels.”⁹⁵ I understand that the SJJNR channel includes only videos in English,⁹⁶ however CCMNR and SJJNR have similar regional viewership patterns, shown in Figure 3 below.

I understand Plaintiffs to allege that all Super JoJo videos, not just those in the SJJNR channel, are infringing.

(55) On July 20, 2021, Moonbug submitted takedown notices through YouTube that resulted in the removal of nine BabyBus videos.⁹⁸ In August 2021, BabyBus' SJJNR channel was removed from YouTube which, according to BabyBus, had “the practical effect of reducing view ship of BabyBus’ videos.”⁹⁹ Despite being restored in October 2021, BabyBus claims that SJJNR “has not seen the same customer and viewer growth that it did before[.]”¹⁰⁰ In October 2021, BabyBus claims that Moonbug submitted more takedown notices that further hampered “BabyBus’ ability to do and grow business through its flagship English-language Super JoJo

- (56) As illustrated in Figure 4, the removal of the SJJNR channel resulted in worldwide views for that channel dropping to nearly zero between August 26 and October 5 of 2021. However, other infringing Super JoJo channels, including all non-English language channels and one additional English-language channel, “Playtime With Friends,” (“SJJP”), both continued to generate positive worldwide views during the removal period. As shown in Figure 4, SJJP and the “Other” channels as a group both show a relative increase when SJJNR was removed.
- (57) I understand that both Super JoJo and CoComelon have YouTube channels that are language-specific.¹⁰³ For example, both CoComelon and Super JoJo have Spanish-language and Portuguese-language channels.¹⁰⁴ However, the channels with the most views for both CoComelon and Super JoJo are in English.¹⁰⁵ Given that the removed SJJNR channel is in English, it is likely that its removal would have mainly impacted views of English-language CoComelon videos. The removal of SJJNR on a U.S.-based platform, YouTube, resulted in the loss of SJJNR’s viewership not just in the U.S., but also worldwide. As I discuss earlier, both SJJNR and CCMNR had significant, and similar, proportions of worldwide viewership.

- (58) To calculate the increase in CoComelon English-language YouTube video views that can be attributed to the removal of the SJJNR channel, I employ an econometric model known as a “differences-in-differences” model.¹⁰⁶ The differences-in-differences model assumes that, absent the removal of the SJJNR channel, worldwide views for CoComelon English-language YouTube videos would follow the same trend as that of a control variable.¹⁰⁷ An appropriate control variable is one that is not significantly impacted by the removal of the SJJNR channel but is impacted by similar external factors that affect CoComelon video views, such as seasonality, COVID-19, and time.
- (59) As my control, I use views of Made for Kids (“MFK”) content on YouTube. MFK content includes all videos that content creators have flagged as such in accordance with guidance from the Federal Trade Commission (“FTC”) on the Children’s online Privacy Protection Act (“COPPA”).¹⁰⁸ According to the FTC, a YouTube channel is Made for Kids if the intended audience is kids under 13 years old.¹⁰⁹ Channel owners are required to properly flag their channels as Made for Kids as appropriate, or face civil penalties in the tens of thousands of dollars.¹¹⁰ All CoComelon and Super JoJo channels would fall under the FTC’s definition of Made for Kids. Between August 2020 and September 2022, MFK content averaged 153 billion views each month.¹¹¹

- (60) Worldwide views of MFK content on YouTube constitute an appropriate control in my regression model.¹¹² First, these data will reflect any seasonal or time trends that also impact views of CoComelon. Second, because there are many YouTube shows contained in these data,¹¹³ the effect of the SJJNR removal will not have a significant impact on total MFK views. In order for a differences-in-differences analysis to be an appropriate methodology, the trends of both the treated group and the control group should be similar in the “pre-period,” or the period prior to the “treatment”, in this case the removal of the SJJNR channel.
- (61) Figure 5 displays the views over time for both the treated group, CoComelon English-language videos, and the control, all YouTube Made for Kids Videos from August 2020 through August 2022. The pre-period is the period prior to September 2021, the only full month for which the SJJNR videos were removed. As can be observed, the trends of both the treatment and control appear to run in parallel prior to September 2021. [REDACTED]

¹¹¹ See Exhibit H-5.

¹¹² I remove CoComelon English-language views from MFK views in the model to avoid problems of collinearity. Thus, the control is worldwide MFK views less worldwide CoComelon English-language views.

¹¹³ The CCMNR channel is the most subscribed to and viewed of the Made for Kids Channel. However, all 30 CoComelon channels combined only account for 2.3% of YouTube MFK views between August 2020 and September 2022. See:

- (62) If CoComelon’s YouTube videos lost views due to the presence of the accused Super JoJo videos, I would expect to observe an increase in worldwide views of CoComelon English-language videos following the removal of the SJJNR channel that is not explained by other factors. The SJJNR channel videos were removed at the end of August 2021 and reinstated at the beginning of October 2021.¹¹⁶ If CoComelon’s English-language videos were losing views due to the infringing SJJNR channel, I would expect to see an increase in views during the month of September, all else equal. I am not aware of any other factors that occurred only in September 2021 that would have impacted worldwide video views on CoComelon’s English-language channel and not impacted viewing behavior of the MFK content.

¹¹⁵ See Exhibit C-5.

¹¹⁶ BabyBus (Fujian) Network Technology Co., Ltd’s Amended Answer, Counterclaims, and Jury Demand, 11/9/2021, at Counterclaim ¶¶ 36, 39.

117 I remove CoComelon English-language views from MFK views in the model to avoid problems of collinearity. Thus, the control is worldwide MFK views less worldwide CoComelon English-language views.

118 The R-squared of the model that includes the log of views is higher than the model that does not log the dependent variable. This suggests that the variance of YouTube views is better explained by the independent variables in the logged model than in the non-logged model.

In addition, such a logarithm functional form is common in published economic literature and econometrics. See, for example:

Wooldridge, Jeffrey M. (2006), Introductory Econometrics: A Modern Approach, 3rd ed., Mason, OH: Thomson South-Western, p. 197, 718. ("In several previous examples, we have encountered the most popular device in econometrics for allowing nonlinear relationships between the explained and explanatory variables: using logarithms for the dependent or independent variables."; "The logarithm can be used for various approximations that arise in econometric applications.")

Ramanathan, Ramu (1998), Introductory Econometrics with Applications, 4th ed., Orlando, FL: Harcourt Brace & Company, p. 254. ("The exponential and logarithmic functions are two of the most commonly used functions in model formulations.") videos less the change in views of YouTube Made for Kids videos.¹¹⁹ Thus, a positive and statistically significant estimate of β_4 would suggest that, in September 2021, the number of views of CoComelon English-language videos increased by more than would be expected given what was observed to happen to the control.

- (69) To estimate the above differences-in-differences model, I limit the data to the time period between August 2020 (the start of the data) through September 2021. As shown in Figure 4 above, after the SJJNR channel was reinstated in early October 2021, views of videos on this channel increased as expected, but did not reach pre-removal levels.¹²⁰ To avoid including any of these potential unrelated effects (that are not directly tied to the SJJNR removal treatment), I run the model only on data through September 2021.
- (70) I estimate the coefficients on this model using robust standard errors.¹²¹ Results are presented in Figure 6 below:

¹¹⁹ Stock, James H. and Mark W. Watson (2007), Introduction to Econometrics, 2nd ed., Boston, MA: Pearson Education, Inc., p. 481.

¹²⁰ BabyBus has filed a counterclaim alleging that “despite being restored, BabyBus’ English-language Super JoJo Channel has not seen the same customer and viewer growth that it did before Moonbug’s unlawful takedown campaign. Moonbug’s false and/or misleading DMCA notices may have caused BabyBus permanently to lose both current and prospective viewers, subscribers, and revenue.” See:

BabyBus (Fujian) Network Technology Co., Ltd’s Amended Answer, Counterclaims, and Jury Demand, 11/9/2021, at Counterclaim ¶ 39.

¹²¹ Robust standard errors, sometimes called “heteroskedasticity-consistent standard errors” are commonly used in practice because they provide accurate confidence intervals and hypothesis tests under more realistic assumptions about the distribution of the standard errors. See:

Angrist, Joshua D. and Jörn-Steffen Pischke (2008), Mostly Harmless Econometrics: An Empiricist’s Companion, Princeton NJ: Princeton University Press, p. 35.

I have seen no evidence that would lead me to conclude that these views would have increased in September but-for the channel removal and, had they instead continued following the trend beginning in March, would have decreased even further. In potentially overstating the number of but-for SJJNR views in September 2021, I am understating the percentage of those views that represent lost views to CoComelon, and therefore understating damages.

(76) While the SJJNR channel was the only whole channel that was successfully removed from YouTube during September 2021, I understand that another English-language channel with accused Super JoJo videos, SJJPF, continued to operate on YouTube. Furthermore, as illustrated by Figure 4 above, when SJJNR was removed, views of infringing SJJPF videos also increased. From August 2021 to September 2021, views to the SJJPF channel increased by over 200%, from approximately 53 million views to 166 million views.¹²⁷ It is thus reasonable to conclude that some portion of these increased views would have also gone to CoComelon videos in the but-for world. I have not included this portion in my damages analysis, which results in damages being understated.

8. Unjust Enrichment

8.1. Overview

- (92) It is my understanding that in establishing the infringer’s profits for unjust enrichment, the copyright owner is required to present proof only of the infringer’s gross revenue, and that the burden then shifts to the infringer to prove deductible expenses and the elements of profit attributable to factors other than the copyrighted work.¹⁴⁶ I also understand that deductions of defendant’s expenses may be denied where the defendant’s infringement is willful or deliberate.¹⁴⁷

8.2. BabyBus’ Business and Sources of Revenues

- (93) As part of an Initial Public Offering (“IPO”), “BabyBus Co., Ltd. submitted IPO application materials to the Shenzhen Stock Exchange on June 18, 2021” (“IPO filing”).¹⁴⁸ The IPO filing provides information on BabyBus’ revenues and its sources:
- a. App Cooperation and Promotion (“Apps”): BabyBus creates and deploys applications or “apps” that can be downloaded from a central repository or platform such as the Apple Store or the Google Play Store to a portable electronic device such as a tablet or phone.¹⁴⁹ I understand that revenues realized by BabyBus from the download and use of Super JoJo apps accrue to this revenue segment.¹⁵⁰
 - b. Audio and Video (“AV”): BabyBus creates and uploads audio and video products to third-party platforms that host such content. BabyBus realizes revenues from licensing agreements and advertisement placed alongside this content.¹⁵¹ I understand that

8.3. BabyBus Revenues from Infringing Content

- (95) As I discuss earlier in this report, accused Super JoJo content was and is used to generate revenue in at least two of BabyBus’ revenue segments or categories.

8.3.1. AV Segment

- (96) BabyBus has produced revenue information for its Super JoJo content hosted on U.S.-based platforms – YouTube, Amazon, and Roku, summarized in Figure 9 below.¹⁵⁷

(“BabyBus states that it is still in the process of analyzing information regarding revenue and expenses related to content on YouTube, Amazon Prime Video, Roku, the Apple App Store and the Google Play Store, which are the only relevant distribution platforms in this litigation”).

(97) As noted above, I understand that it is the burden of the infringer to prove any costs or deductions from that revenue.

8.3.2. Apps Segment

(98) I understand that BabyBus has produced at least six Super JoJo themed apps that it distributes on platforms such as the Apple App Store and Google Play. These apps include at least (1) Super JoJo: Baby Care; (2) Super JoJo: Good Habits; (3) Super JoJo: My Home; (4) Super JoJo: Preschool Learning; (5) BabyBus TV: Kids Videos & Games; and (6) Super JoJo: Nursery Rhymes.¹⁵⁹

(99) The Defendants’ gross revenues, based on alleged infringement that occurred in the U.S., for their Super JoJo apps on Google Play and the Apple App Store amount to $145,472.¹⁶⁰

(100) As noted previously, I understand the burden shifts to the infringer to prove any costs or deductions from that revenue.

8.3.3. Deduction for Revenues Accounted for in Lost Profits

- (101) I understand that unjust enrichment damages do not include amounts associated with infringing activity that is taken into account in computing Plaintiffs’ lost profits or actual damages.¹⁶¹
- (102) In my earlier discussion on lost profits (Section 7), I determined that CoComelon lost views on YouTube as a result of the Defendants’ allegedly infringing activity. I determined that 32.8% of SJJNR’s 15.1 billion views, or approximately 5 billion views, would have gone to CoComelon in the but-for scenario. Hence, I account for these views and deduct 32.8% from SJJNR’s revenues, as shown in Figure 10 below.
